

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.12228 of 2008
DHANU RABIDAS
Versus
STATE OF BIHAR

2. 7.5.2008 Heard.

The petitioner, Dhanu Rabidas is an accused in a case instituted under sections 452, 323, 324, 307, 366A, 376 and 302/34 on the allegation that this petitioner along with his two servants Kedar Manjhi and Karu Manjhi with several other persons went to the house of the informant, forcibly entered into the house, dragged out her daughter and thereafter Kedar Manjhi and Karu Manjhi took her to a lonely place where they committed rape and murder of the informant's daughter.

It appears from the confessional statement of the co-accused Kedar Manjhi and also from the allegations leveled in the FIR that this petitioner Dhanu Rabidas is the main hero of the entire incidents of kidnapping, rape and murder, although he is not directly associated with rape and murder. It appears that the entire occurrence had taken place at the instance of this petitioner Dhanu Rabidas who was on inimical terms with the informant from before and on several occasions with the help of his two servants had tried to assault the informant and to commit other offences.

In such view of the matter, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail who is instrumental in committing the heinous offence of kidnapping and murder. Hence, prayer of bail of the petitioner Dhanu Rabidas is hereby rejected.
